since that time he has made his home with two daughters. He is survived by five children: Mrs. F. G. Winter, Mrs. Carolena Winter, Mrs. Emma Glonstad, Mrs. Marie Skram, and Mr. Ed. Rodberg, also by 9 grandchildren and 6 great grandchildren.

Mr. Rodberg was a devout and consecrated Christian, very active in church work all his life. He was for many years precentor in the Fertile and Ellington congregations, and took care that there was held vacation religious school for the children. He was also very much interested in our church papers and had the first copy of the Lutheraneren. Mr. and Mrs. Rodberg were very hospitable, and many newcomer boys and girls found their first home with the Rodbergs. One summer this family took in three newcomer families, so four families lived in their house which in those days was not very large. After his seventieth year Mr. Rodberg began to interest himself in writing verse, and it is said that he wrote several beautiful hymns.

Rev. Einar Wulfsberg passed away at the Decorah Hospital Sunday evening, Nov. 11. He was the son of Rev. and Mrs. Frants Einar Wulfsberg and was born in Freeborn county, Minn., Feb. 20, 1882. He attended Luther College 1893-1900 receiving his A.B. degree. He attended Luther Seminary, St. Paul, 1900-1903, and Minnesota University 1903-1904. He was ordained into the Christian ministry upon a call from Duluth, Minn., where he served the local congregation and a number of annex mission congregations from 1904 to 1915. Receiving a call from Elbow Lake, Minn., he moved there and served three congregations up to 1921, when he became president of Park Region College at Fergus Falls, Minn. He served in that capacity for eleven years when, broken in health, he moved to Decorah, Iowa. Last winter he accepted a call from Burr Oak Lutheran Church, Burr Oak, Ia., and the South Fork Congregation in Southern Minnesota. He labored faithfully in this field until a serious illness overtook him in the early part of October. He sought medical aid in Decorah and Iowa City, but to no avail. The Lord whom he had served, called him to his reward on Armistice Day. In 1910 he was united in marriage to Miss Karen Thorsen of St. Paul, Minn. She survives him together with five sons and one daughter. He is also survived by five sisters and one brother. These are Mrs. Prof. E. Hove, Mrs. J. E. Thoen, Mrs. O. Heimdahl, Mrs. Z. J. Ordahl, Mrs. Edwin Boyd and Rev. Jacob Wulfsberg.

Pastor Wulfsberg was buried from First Lutheran Church, Decorah, Iowa, on Thursday, Nov. 15. Rev. T. A. Hoff conducted the service. Dr. Oscar L. Olson brought a greeting on behalf of Luther College and a double quartet of Luther College students sang. The pastors of the Decorah circuit attended the funeral in a body, and six of their number served as pall-bearers. The committal service was in charge of his brother, the Rev. Jacob Wulfsberg of Hartland, Minn.
